

Red Dawn & Wind Across The Rails

By DeQuincy Native, Major Jerry Bell,
Delta Force Counter-Terrorism Agent

Jerry Bell has seen much more of the world than most people and that is reflected in Wind Across the Rails, a true account of his many life experiences, beginning with his DeQuincy roots. His military exploits are covered in detail as well as an exciting collection of personal memories.

His latest book, Red Dawn, is a book about things to come. Major Bell has experienced many of the actions in this book in far away places.

He is now a Major, Chief of Detectives, who takes pride in serving his home town with the same integrity that he served his country.
