

Riley Smith & Sons Funeral Home

“The Difference Is In The Details”

Riley Smith & Sons Funeral Home continues to be the only family owned and operated funeral home in DeQuincy. Since the acquisition of the business in 2015, the business has continued to grow under his leadership and direction. Riley is a firm believer in “the difference is in the details” and each family is served with compassion, honor, and dignity. Cameron and Landon serve alongside their father and Rebecca Smith works alongside her husband, Riley. She has acquired her license as a funeral director assisting with families and funeral services. The business has now employed two additional funeral directors, Stephen Pousson and Buddy Gillis.

Currently Riley Smith and Sons Funeral Home has three locations, DeQuincy, Kinder and Lake Charles with the fourth location to be opening soon in Reeves, Louisiana.

In addition to these locations which serve Southwest Louisiana and Southeast Texas, the business has its own grave and monument service known as Riley Smith & Sons Monuments & Vaults. Riley also owns Riley Smith Memorial Park, a perpetual care cemetery, Masonic and McFatter Cemetery, Perkins Cemetery and it maintains Rigmaiden Cemetery and McRill Cemetery in Kinder, Louisiana. The operation in Kinder includes a floral service known as Petals by Riley Smith & Sons. Hannah Minchew, daughter of Riley and Rebecca Smith is the licensed florist for the business.

Riley’s first obligations will continue to be his wife and family. He and his family are members of The First United Pentecostal Church of DeQuincy while Landon and Hannah are members of Indian Village United Pentecostal Church. Riley also serves as the Mayor of the City of DeQuincy and is involved in various civic organizations.
